

THE COMMONS

Bottled water is the way corporations take the human right to safe, affordable, accessible drinking water

More than 10 billion plastic water bottles end up as garbage

Bottled water introduces a whole new stream of toxic plastics

Avoid buying and using bottled water

Use a stainless steel water bottle

Inquire whether local restaurants are selling and serving bottled water

Make sure that your public works department provides good quality tap water

Show the documentary Thirst